ALTIPLANO

Altiplano is an abstract dance that originates in movement structures that range from spare images of the desert to highly physical and complex configurations, like a flash flood or violent wind. It references the evolution of animals and social communication with its gradually increasing physicality and hive-like density, and our global and personal ecology.

Maria Baranova

Jane Comfort is a choreographer, writer, and director who has broken boundaries in dance performance since the late 70's. She is a Guggenheim Fellow whose work has been performed throughout the US, in Europe, and in Latin America. “Jane Comfort is one of the most fertile minds in the theater of mixed forms.” - The New York Times
