NOTE: Availability of Trisha Brown: In Plain Site programming will be based on local Covid-19 safety guidelines for travel and gatherings. Guideline-permitting, engagements could be available beginning fall 2020.

Trisha Brown: In Plain Site engagements pair indoor and outdoor sites with select pieces from Brown's repertory. Each work is restaged in a dynamic relationship to the setting, amplifying Brown's effortless affinity for naturalizing movement to the physical environment.

Ever a resourceful and dexterous innovator, Brown "...said she felt sorry for spaces that weren't center stage—the ceiling, walls, corners, and wing space. Not to mention trees, lakes, and firehouses," Wendy Perron recently wrote in Dance Magazine. "She caused a revolution by... turning to the spaces that other dance-makers don't." In parks, museums, and public squares, among other sites, audiences revel in the intimate, up-close experience of Brown's Early Works, Equipment Pieces, and specially chosen excerpts from the repertory.

Performances would take place outside, with your audience on-site, practicing social distancing. The touring company will travel as a family "bubble," or "pod."

Length of presentation: 60 minutes

Advance time required: 3 months preferred.
